Robbie's distinctive award-winning woodturning is enhanced with subtle colours, patinas and texture. His artworks range from elegant hollow vessels and finely turned ornaments to garden sculptures, including his popular koru-inspired 'Evolution' series, large steel pipe sculptures, unique steel braziers and public commission The Crossing at Ferry Road, Taupo.

THANKS TO:

Lake Taupo Rotary Club – benefactor

Huge thanks to the Lake Taupo Rotary Club for making this fundraising project possible to provide greater promotion for Taupo Art Connection's artists, website, events and activities. The Rotary Club of Taupo Moana merged with Taupo Rotary to form Lake Taupo Rotary Club. The Lake Taupo Cycle Challenge is this small, vibrant club's main fundraising event. Helene Phillips, Ferner Galleries – external selector

Thank you to Helene Phillips of Ferner Galleries for providing external selection for the artworks submitted for the calendar.

Helene Phillips is a Director of Ferner Galleries. Since the early 90s, she travelled to regional centres within New Zealand offering art lovers the opportunity to view and acquire some of New Zealand's great artworks, valuing collections and providing collection guidelines and advice. As a result, Ferner Galleries became one of New Zealand's most well-known art dealerships. Helene now lives in Taupo in semi-retirement.

www.taupoartconnection.org.nz

Taupo Art Connection is an inclusive, social, collaborative arts group bringing together independent visual artists and representing a commitment to creating a vibrant, active arts community benefitting both artists and visitors to the region.
